Fifth Annual Dubois Antler Rendezvous to be Held May 11th-15th

DUBOIS, WY— The largest one of a kind gathering of antler buyers, sellers, brokers, builders and crafters from coast to coast will meet in Dubois, WY. It will be the 5th Annual Dubois Antler Rendezvous, this year sponsored by the Dubois Lions Club and Boy Scout Troop 56. Woodworker’s Supply is a corporate sponsor. Located in the Dubois City Park, the event is open 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. Monday-Thursday, May 11th-14th and till noon on Friday the 15th. Free and open to the public.

The event, located 80 miles east of Jackson Hole, WY, attracts antler dealers, brokers and wildlife enthusiasts from around the globe. During the week of May 11th-15th, the public and dealers alike will be able to choose from thousands of elk, deer, moose, red stag, and caribou antlers, plus heads, hides, horns, antler arts & crafts, furniture, chandeliers and skulls. Anything antler you can think of will be on display and for sale at the rendezvous. The public is welcome to bring their own antlers to sell.

This event is a great place for buying or selling antler, for decorators and homeowners to meet antler builders and see a variety of their work or for builders and crafters to select first hand the antler they need for their projects during the year.

All things antler are on display. See “Sue” a life sized Bull Elk Statue made by Kurt Gordon of Dubois. The statue will be on display at the rendezvous and is made entirely from antler including, mule deer, elk, moose and antelope.

Other Rendezvous highlights include: a variety of food vendors, live music and historic story telling, children’s games and a Budweiser wagon. There will be several raffles including one for a 14" Woodtek band saw donated by Woodworker's Supply. Bring the family and step back in time - come be part of this true western experience!
